2014 Sixth Circuit Appellate Practice Institute

The Cincinnati-Northern Kentucky and Dayton Chapters of the Federal Bar Association and the Litigation Section of the Federal Bar Association, in cooperation with the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit, will sponsor the 2014 Sixth Circuit Appellate Practice Institute on May 6, 2014 at the Westin Hotel in downtown Cincinnati. The seminar will provide an opportunity for practitioners to hear directly from several of the Sixth Circuit Judges, court staff, and leading appellate attorneys about how to practice effectively before the Sixth Circuit. The Practice Institute topics include the following:

The Technological Transformation of Appellate Practice - Hear the perspectives of a circuit judge, the clerk of the court, and a practitioner on how technology is changing the practice before the Sixth Circuit.

Preserving Issues for Appeal - A panel of experienced trial judges will discuss how to protect your record to preserve issues for appeal.

A Look Inside the Court - How Court Processes Work. Court staff will provide a rare behind-the-scenes glimpse of how the clerk's office works and how to avoid common mistakes.

Effective Mediation Advocacy in the Settlement Conference Process - Hear directly from the circuit's chief mediator about how to effectively prepare and represent your client in an appellate mediation session.

Effective Brief Writing - A panel of circuit judges will discuss practical tips for effective written advocacy in the Sixth Circuit.

Effective Oral Advocacy - Another panel of circuit judges will give an inside look into how judges prepare for and evaluate oral arguments and how counsel should approach their argument.

Get Admitted! – For those not yet admitted at the Sixth Circuit, a unique opportunity will be provided to be sworn in by the Chief Judge.

Approval requested for 6.0 hours of CLE by Ohio, Kentucky and Tennessee.
